Reflection Waiting for his coming

The foolish have no oil in their lamps.
They burn themselves out through a life of self-seeking and dedication to worldly cares and vanities.
They do not even think of the Lord, much less wait for his coming.
The wise, on the other hand, have oil in their lamps.
They are detached from themselves and from the cares of the world, and are full of charity.
They are waiting for the Lord, and desire nothing else but his coming.
Let us keep our minds alight with faith,
our souls alight with hope, and our hearts alight with love, as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

WORDLD DAY OF REMEMBRANCE FOR ROAD TRAFFIC VICTIMS

Sunday 19th November

- ◆ Praying for Road Traffic Victims & their families
- ◆ Blessing of Emergency Services
- ◆ Blessing of Cars after Masses this weekend

At the 6.15pm Mass on Saturday 18th we will remember and pray for all those who have died in tragic circumstances on our roads.

A candle will be lit and brought to the Altar for each victim. If you would like to have a candle lit for a relative or friend please give their name to any of the priests or to the Parish Office 98-51295

We also pray for families, friends and communities who continue to live with this grief every day,
And for those involved in the aftermath of a tragedy
Fire Services, Gardaí, Ambulance Crew, Clergy Medical Personnel and Counsellors.

Let us remind ourselves how precious life is and how vulnerable we all are each and every time we use the roads - as drivers or pedestrians - and ask ourselves:

"What can I do to make sure that fewer families are grieving for their loved ones this Christmas?"

- ◆ We must be fully responsible for our actions
- ◆ We must be visible on the roads at all times
- ◆ We must be vigilant of other road users
- ◆ Never ever drink / take drugs and drive
- ◆ Never let anyone under the influence drive
- ◆ Never use mobile phone when driving
