Reflection The Cost of Talent

I have not the fine audacity of men who have mastered the pen or the purse.
 The complexes of many slaves are in my verse.
 When I straighten my shoulders to look at the world boldly
 I see talent coldly
 Damning me to stooped attrition.
 Mine was a beggar's mission
 To dreams of beauty I should have been born blind.
 I should have been content to walk behind
 Watching the reflection of God's delight:
 A second-hand teller of the story
 A second-hand glory.
 It was not right
 That my mind should have echoed life's overtones
 That I should have seen a flower Petalled in mighty power.
(From the complete Poems of Patrick Kavanagh, 1984, Goldsmith Press)
