Reflection

Each of us is like a grain of wheat planted by the heavenly Father.
That grain must die if it is to produce a harvest.

This dying to self is a gradual process
and happens in very ordinary ways.
Every act of kindness involves dying to meanness.

Every act of love involves dying to selfishness.

Every act of humility involves dying to pride.

Every act of courage involves dying to cowardice.

Every act of forgiveness involves dying to bitterness

When a person's life is producing a rich harvest of such acts, it means that the grain of wheat has well and truly died.

The false self is dying, and the true self,
made in God's image, is slowly being born.
It is the true self alone that will inherit eternal life, for there is no place for what is false in the presence of God.

It would melt like snow before the sun
