Communion Reflection

It is the heart that matters:

It is not clean fingernails,
or clean teeth, or a clean skin,
that makes a person clean
in the sight of God.
To be truly clean is to be clean of heart.

For the heart is what I am deep down.
It is the real me.
And while we are all capable of deception,
a corrupt heart will sooner or later
show itself in the face.
At the same time, a clean heart,
like a clean mountain lake
shines in the face.

Jesus looked at the Pharisees
and said to them:
"These men are no better than white-
washed tombs:
They are clean on the outside,
but inside they are full of corruption".
But he looked at Nathanael and said:
"Here is a true Israelite, a man in whom
there is no trace of deceit".

In other words, here was a transparent
person.
Here was a man who was clean of heart,
and therefore clean all over.
