Day of Prayer for Marriage
and Family Life

This Tuesday 11th September

Theme:

Married people who are separated or divorced
Couples get married with high expectations of success.
Thank God most couples achieve this

to one degree or another.

Unfortunately many couples do have to go through the trauma of separation and/or divorce in their lives.

Two of the major causes of separation are: sexual infidelity on the part of one or other of the spouses;
and violence from one or other of the spouses that becomes intolerable. When these happen decisions have to be made for the sake of the offended spouse
and/or the children.

These decisions to separate or divorce are never taken lightly but often with great pain.
It is in these situations that the active support of the community of faith is also so necessary.
