Headings for Readings

First Reading (Acts 10:34, 37 - 43). This is part of an early sermon of St. Peter. He tells us how he was a witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. The risen Jesus is the Saviour of all those who believe in him, as well as the Judge of the living and the dead.

Second Reading (Colossians 3:1 - 4) Through our Baptism we already share in the risen life of Christ though in a hidden & mysterious way Gospel (John 20:1 - 9) Early on Sunday morning some of the disciples discover that the tomb in which Jesus was buried is empty. Then the truth of what the Scriptures had foretold begins to dawn on them, namely that Jesus would rise from the dead.

Happy Easter

May the Risen Lord whom we celebrate this Easter fill your homes and your lives with His Joy and Blessings.

This is a time for us to be in prayerful solidarity with each other - a time when prayer and our reliance on God is more important than ever.

It is important that we look out for each other and especially the most vulnerable.

This Easter also, let us be responsible,
following the guidelines and doing what is being asked of us just for a little longer

Stay safe , Stay at home!

Act of Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there
and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me*

Communion Reflection

This is a description of an Easter ceremony in Russia where it is highly dangerous to be a believer

"Someone at the back of the church lit a candle, a single point of light not able to pierce the darkness.
But there was another, and another, for each of the worshippers carried a candle.

Swiftly the flame was passed from one to another.
In less than a minute the church was a blaze of light
- no, not the impersonal glare of electricity - it was a thousand individual flames united in a single faith.

Each candle lit up the face behind it.
That face bore the deep lines of suffering.
Yet it was illuminated, and the suffering turned into joy, because of the certain knowledge that the Lord has risen.

These people do not debate the resurrection.
They have experienced it in their lives.
They have not persevered the faith in hostile surroundings; it has preserved them.
Their joy is a glimpse through the curtain
which divides us from heaven"

Lord, may your Easter light shine on us this day,
and chase the shadows of the night of death away.
