Theme All Fathers
The Joy of Love: Pope Francis
A father helps the child to perceive the limits of life, to be open to the challenges of the wider world, and to see the need for hard work and strenuous effort. A father possessed of a clear and serene masculine identity who demonstrates affection and concern for his wife is just as necessary as a caring mother. (175)

Coming to Mass

Information for all coming to our Churches

We ask that you observe the following:

- ◇ Please wear a mask
- ◇ Hand Sanitiser to be used upon entry and exit
- ◇ Social Distancing - stay 2 metres apart
- ◇ Avoid touching any surface
- ◇ Enter pews via the side aisles and then move towards the centre aisle
- ◇ Please go to end of seat so as to avoid others having to pass you. When in seat make sure you move to the side (or centre depending on grouping) so as to let others know there is available seating
- ◇ Holy Communion directly on hand only. (no gloves or tissues please)
- ◇ If you wish to light a candle, please bring your own lighter

Prayer for Vocations

Christ Jesus,
who on the shores of the Sea of Galilee called the Apostles and made them the foundation of the Church and bearers of your Gospel, in our day, sustain your people on their journey. Give courage to those whom you call to follow you in the priesthood and the consecrated life, so that they may enrich God's field with the wisdom of your Word. Make them docile instruments of your love in everyday service of their brothers and sisters. We make this our prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen

Our Prayers & Good Wishes
To all students starting their exams this week

Exam Prayer

Lord pour out your Spirit of Wisdom on me.
Help me to remain calm,
to attend carefully to the questions asked to think clearly, to remember accurately and to express myself well.

Grant that I may reflect the best of the work I have done, and the best of the teaching I have received.

Help me not to become unduly stressed. Lord I place all my trust in you. Amen
Mass for Exam Students Tuesday at 9.30 am

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel (Mark 14:12 - 16, 22:26)

The symbolic gesture of breaking and sharing bread and sharing the cup, that Jesus made at the Last Supper, symbolised the offering of himself that he would make on Calvary, giving his life for others. Sometimes we also are called to give our lives for others. We can do this grudgingly or with a generous heart. What difference has it made for you when you were able to give yourself freely?

In his encyclical letter Deus Caritas Est Pope Benedict XVI wrote, "A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is essentially fragmented". What has helped you to be aware of the importance of the link between the Eucharist and your lifestyle?

Jesus involved his disciples both in the preparation for the Last Supper and in its celebration. Recall times when you had a heightened awareness of participation and involvement in the Mass.

What helped to give you this awareness?
Are there lessons from these special experiences that you can bring with you to the routine Sunday Mass?

Colmcille 1500

St. Colmcille, also known as St. Columba, is one of Ireland's patron saints, a distinction that he shares with St. Patrick and St. Bridget. St. Colmcille was born in Gartán, County Donegal on December 7, 521 A.D. In 545 A.D., St. Colmcille founded his first monastery in Derry / Doire Cholm Cille. St. Colmcille and twelve monks sailed from Derry to the island of Iona in Scotland in 563 A.D. He died on Iona on June 9, 597 A.D. and his feast day is commemorated on that date every year.

With this year marking the 1500th anniversary of the birth of Colmcille, a new website has been set up which will promote all of the celebrations taking place as part of the historic occasion.

The website will be a central hub for people in the North West to collectively promote activities and events for the 1500th anniversary, while also providing a collaborative platform to engage with national and international audiences and to share other events taking place elsewhere marking the importance and legacy of the 6th century saint in the North West and around the world.

The programme covers a range of projects, events and activities including a community grants scheme. It is being delivered in partnership with a range of local, regional, national and international organisations and builds on an Audit of Columban Heritage undertaken in 2018, aiming to raise knowledge and understanding of Colmcille as well as establishing a lasting legacy.
