The Baptism of the Lord

Jesus is anointed with the Spirit and his power. He is proclaimed Messiah. He now goes about doing good, working the signs that make him known as the Servant of God. He is the one who brings good news to the poor and tells of salvation.

Is the One who "baptised you with the Holy Spirit" asking you to consider a call to serve as a priest, a deacon or in the consecrated life? Speak to your local priest or your Diocesan Vocations Director, or email the National Vocations Office on info@vocations.ie

Director of Vocations for the Diocese of Raphoe is Very Rev. Rory Brady P.P., Bruckless 074 97 37015

Funeral Guidance from the HSE

"Family members, mourners, clergy, and funeral staff should not attend a funeral if they have Covid, symptoms of Covid, awaiting a Covid test result, or have been told by public health to restrict movements. This includes close contact with the deceased if the cause of death is Covid related." - HSE

- Funeral services can take place with full capacity, protective measures must be in place
- Members of the congregation should avoid singing or any raising of voices
- Any physical interactions including shaking of hands and hugging should be discouraged.
- Observe social distancing throughout the service
- Cloth face coverings or masks should be worn for all indoor services by all present. A visor should not be used unless there are specific problems with using the face mask. It is recommended that a surgical face mask be worn by those considered high risk category
- Guards of Honour must observe social distancing.
- Those gathering at the graveside should optimise social distancing and wear face masks.

Wakes

"Whilst recognising the importance of wakes, gatherings of this nature are a concern to public health officials at this time. It is strongly advised that hugging and hand-shaking be discouraged, that all attendees wear a mask, that hands are sanitised upon entering and exiting the house/building and that appropriate distance is afforded to fellow mourners." - HSE

Prayer Sharing in the Lord's ministry

Lord Jesus, touch our eyes so that we may see the signs of your presence in our lives and in the world. Touch our ears so that we may hear your word. Touch our tongues so that we may profess our faith. Touch our hands so that we may give and receive. Touch our feet so that we may walk in your paths. Touch our minds so that we may understand your ways. Touch our wills so that they may be in tune with your will. Touch our hearts so that we may bring your love to our brothers and sisters., To the praise and glory of God.

Amen.
Flor McCarthy, S.D.B.
